LETTERS TO THE EDITOR Motion Picture Censorship.

Mr. Editor: About three months ago the Woman's Municipal league with-drew from the National Board of Cen-sorship of Motion Pictures and issued statement that while they were cordemned over a million dollars' worth of film, as proof of the value of their censorship. The truth is, and every-body acquainted with the facts knows him, and thus partially snoply the light that has just described him.

Wistaria, one of the most exculsite finshcivits of the day, is another film the minds of all who see it. It is not the duty of the so-called finshcivits of the day, is another film the minds of all who see it. It is not the duty of the so-called National Board of Censorship to assume to pass on artistic quality or wish to the latter city, which is one of the show places of the south.
